

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

An Act

To authorize the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company to extend their railroad from White Haven to Mauch Chunk.

WHEREAS, The valley of the river Lehigh has, on several occasions, and latterly on the fourth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, been the scene of fearful floods, occasioning great loss of life and property along the line of said river :

And whereas, The severity of said floods is thought to have been greatly increased by the destruction, mostly above Mauch Chunk, of dams and other works, erected by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, to create a slackwater navigation along said river, in accordance with the requirements of divers acts of assembly, relating to said company :

And whereas, It would greatly conduce to the future safety of persons and property, along the line of said river, if a portion of said works, now in ruins, on the upper section of said navigation, should not be restored :

And whereas, It is nevertheless important to the legitimate interests of said company, and to the public, that the said slackwater navigation should not be disconnected from the railroad, also belonging to said company, and known as the Lehigh and Susquehanna railroad, constructed under a certain act of assembly, entitled "An Act authorizing the construction of a railroad to connect the North Branch division of the Pennsylvania canal, at or within the borough of Wilkesbarre, with the slackwater navigation of the Lehigh," approved the thirteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, said railroad and slackwater navigation forming a continuous line from Wilkesbarre to Easton ; therefore,

- SECTION 3. That the said company shall have the right to build branches, not exceeding eight miles in length each, to connect their said Lehigh and Susquehanna railroad, or the aforesaid back track, or the railway authorized by this act, with coal mines or with other railroads.
- SECTION 4. That for the purpose of constructing the improvements authorized by this act, and for repairing their works, and for general purposes of their business, it shall be lawful for said company to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as they shall deem expedient, not in the whole exceeding three millions of dollars, and to mortgage their canal, slackwater navigation, railroads, property and franchises, or any part thereof, as security therefor.

SECTION 5. That the provisions of the tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth and eighteenth sections of the act of nineteenth February, eighteen hundred and forty-nine, entitled "An Act regulating railroad companies," and those of the several existing supplements to said act, are hereby extended to the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, so far as relates to the construction, maintenance, use, management and repairs of the railway and branches authorized by this act and of the Lehigh and Susquehanna railroad, and the branches thereof; and the said Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company are hereby fully invested with all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises therein contained. An Act

To empower the trustees of the Fourth Presbyterian church of the city of Philadelphia to sell certain real estate.

WHEREAS, By an act of assembly of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, passed the fifteenth day of March, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred, all the right, title and interest of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in a certain city lot, situate in the city of Philadelphia, bounded east by Twelfth street, north by Lombard street, west by Thirteenth street, and south by land now, or late, of Amos Wickersham and Richard Price, containing, east and west, three hundred and ninety-six feet, and in length or depth, north and south, seventy-eight feet, was thereby vested in the trustees of the Fourth Presbyterian congregation, in the city of Philadelphia, and their successors, for ever, for the sole purpose of building a church thereon, and for the interment of their dead therein, and for no other use, intent, or purpose whatsoever :

And whereas, The said trustees of the Fourth Presbyterian congregation, in the city of Philadelphia, have erected, on the said lot, a house for public worship, and have created, thereby, a debt of seven thousand six hundred dollars, in the erection of said building ; for which they executed two certain mortgages, one for four thousand dollars, and the other for three thousand six hundred dollars ; and have also contracted other debts, which they are unable to liquidate, in consequence of the annual receipts of said congregation being inadequate to defray the current expenses of said congregation, and the payment of the interest on the said mortgages :

And whereas, In the western part of said lot there are but few interments, and they can be removed to the other portion of the ground, and by disposing of about eighty-five feet thereof, the said congregation would be relieved of a portion of the debt, and the intention of the grantors would thereby be more efficiently carried out ; therefore, of ground attached to the said Fourth Presbyterian church, situate on the south side of Lombard street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, in the city of Philadelphia, commencing eastward, from the east side of Thirteenth street, and extending eastward along the south side of Lombard street, eighty-five feet, and extending, in length or depth, southward of that width, seventy-eight feet; bounded westward by Thirteenth street, northward by Lombard street, eastward by the burial ground of the said Fourth Presbyterian congregation, and southward by ground now, or late, of Amos Wickersham and Richard Price, with the appurtenances, and to convey to the purchaser, or purchasers, a good and valid title; and the said trustees of the Fourth Presbyterian congregation, in the city of Philadelphia, and their successors, shall have power, by and with the consent of a majority of the said Fourth Presbyterian congregation, in case of the said trustees disposing of said above described ground on an annual rent charge, to convey the said rent or rents, in fee simple, and to receive the payment according to such conveyance, and release and extinguish the said rent, or rents; and no purchaser, or purchasers, of either the lands, or of the rent, or rents, shall be bound to see to the application of the said money, whether in purchase or in extinguishment, as aforesaid: Provided, That the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the liquidation of the said mortgage debt of the said church, and for no other purpose whatsoever, until the said debt be paid: Provided, That the said trustees shall not sell or dispose of the above described ground, or any part thereof, for a less sum than five dollars per foot on annual ground rent, fronting on Lombard street aforesaid, and of the said depth southward seventy-eight feet.

An Act

To authorize the Wyoming Canal Company, and its creditors, to agree to an adjustment of their respective rights.

WHEREAS, The Wyoming Canal Company, by reason of the Preamble. great reduction of trade on the line of their canal, have failed to pay the interest on their debt to the commonwealth, and other holders of their bonds, and to perform their covenants expressed in their mortgage, executed and delivered, to trustees, on the twenty-fourth of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, to secure the payment of the same, and proceedings having been instituted, by certain bondholders on the said mortgage, for the sale of the mortgaged premises, the attorney general has intervened on behalf of the commonwealth, to prevent such sale, the same being considered incompatible with the public interests, and the canal and property of the said company has been placed in the hands of a receiver :

And whereas, In order to prevent further depreciation of, and loss on, the said property for want of proper management, and to avoid an unnecessary sale of the same, which would probably prove injurious to all interests concerned, and to end all litigation in respect thereto, the stockholders of the said company, and the principal creditors thereof, have agreed upon certain terms of settlement, which are considered equitable and just, but which cannot be carried into effect without legislative aid, and the consent of the commonwealth :

And whereas, It is believed that the interests of the commonwealth, and all other parties concerned as creditors or stockholders of the said company, will be best promoted by a legislative grant of such powers as will enable the said parties to consummate the said agreement, as the same is expressed in the following act ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

That if the stockholders of the Wyoming canal company, or such of them as represent two-thirds of the capital stock thereof, shall, at a meeting called for that purpose, by the president of the said company, agree to accept the provisions of this act, within thirty days from the passage of the same, and the holders of two-thirds, in amount, of the bonds of the said company, exclusive of the bonds for two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars, owned by the commonwealth, shall also consent to the provisions herein contained, respecting the payment of the said bonds, secured by mortgage, executed by the said company, bearing date the twenty-fourth of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and if the

To enable the commissioners of Clinton county to borrow money, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Two successive grand juries, of the county of Clinton, in the state of Pennsylvania, at September and December terms, of the court of quarter sessions of the said county, for the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, in and by their several written reports, presented to the said court, approved and filed of record, did recommend the erection of a new court house, upon such suitable lot of ground, situate on Main or Water street, in the borough of Lock Haven, east of Mill street, and west of the canal, as should be furnished to the county, as a donation, and conveyed by a good title :

And whereas, The said recommendations, respectively contain a condition, that the cost to the county, for the erection of the said court house, is not to exceed the proceeds arising from the sale of the present court house, and grounds attached thereto, and the sum of ten thousand dollars ; and that if any additional sum should be needed, to complete the said court house, said additional sum should be guaranteed, by some responsible person or persons :

And whereas, Certain of the citizens, of the borough of Lock Haven, have signified their willingness to convey, to the said county, for the purpose aforesaid, as a donation, a suitable lot, or piece, of ground, within the limits specified, in and by, the said reports of the grand jury ; but the commissioners of the said county, considering their authority, in the premises, limited and circumscribed, by the said reports, are unwilling, without further authority, to expend, for the erection of a court house and public offices, a greater sum than that specified in the said reports, which sum is wholly inadequate for that purpose ; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

That the commissioners of the said county of Clinton be and they are hereby authorized and directed, with the approbation of the court of quarter sessions, of the said county, to proceed to erect, and cause to be erected, upon such suitable lot, or piece of ground, in the town of Lock Haven, and within the limits prescribed by the said reports of the grand jury, as shall, within six months from the passage of this act, be conveyed to the said county, for that purpose, by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, in fee simple, clear of all encumbrances, a court house, suitable for the convenient accommodation of the courts and the several officers of the said county, and for the reception and safe keeping of the records, and other papers, in charge of such officers, and for that purpose, to expend so much of the money of said county, as may be required for that purpose, any thing in the reports of the grand jury, aforesaid, to the contrary, in anywise notwithstanding.

Commissioners, subject to approval of court, authorized to provide for the erection of a court house.

SECTION 2. That the commissioners of the said county be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, as soon after a suitable lot shall have been conveyed to the county, for the erection thereon, of a new court house, and public offices, as aforesaid, as they shall deem expedient, to sell, for the best price that can be obtained therefor, at public or private sale, as to them shall seem best and most advisable, the present court house, belonging to said county, with the lot or parcel of ground, upon which it is erected, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging, a report of which sale shall be made, by the said commissioners, to the court of quarter sessions of the said county ; and the said court, if it shall approve of said sale, shall order and direct the commissioners, of the said county, for the time being, upon payment of the purchase money, to the treasurer of the said county, to make and execute a deed, to the SECTION 4. That the bonds, to be issued as aforesaid, shall be signed by a majority of the county commissioners, attested by their clerk, and verified by the seal of the county, and the coupons shall be signed by the clerk of the commissioners, and made payable at the county treasury ; it shall also be the duty of the county commissioners, to keep an account, on their books, of the number, date and amount, of each of said bonds, and to whom payable ; and every holder of a bond, by assignment, may, if he sees proper, have the same entered on said book, by the clerk of the commissioners ; and the said bonds, in the hands of the holders, shall at all times be clear, and discharged, from all taxes and assessments, of every kind and nature whatever, except for state purposes, and may be assigned, from time to time, by the holders thereof, by endorsement thereon.

A Further Supplement

To the several acts heretofore passed relating to the Union Canal Company of Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, In pursuance of the authority contained in the said act of assembly, passed the tenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the creditors of the said Union Canal Company, therein referred to, have agreed, or are about to agree, to accept, in satisfaction of their claims, bonds, to be issued as therein authorized, in lieu of coupons for interest, to be surrendered and cancelled, and certain of the said bondholders of said company have agreed to surrender coupons for interest, due on their bonds, to an amount sufficient for that purpose:

And whereas, The stockholders of the said company have, as therein provided, accepted the said act of assembly, and agreed to become bound by the terms thereof; and holders of the bonds of the company, secured by mortgages, to the amount of two million four hundred and fifteen thousand dollars, have, in the manner therein provided, also agreed to become bound by the provisions of the said act, whereby the principal sum, secured under the mortgages of the said company, heretofore made, is now, (as respects all persons, but such of the said bondholders as have refused to concur in and accept the said act, the principal of whose bonds amount to eighty-five thousand dollars,) or will be, when the said bonds are issued, three millions of dollars, and the parties thus assenting have, by the terms of the said act, agreed that all interest on said bonds, heretofore accrued, or hereafter to accrue, has, and shall be deemed, and taken, to have been fully satisfied and paid, by the appropriation, to their use, of the pro rata share of the net annual income of the said company, after the payment of all expenses; which said net income is to be divided among, and paid to, them, the said bondholders, in the proportions of the amounts due to them, respectively, on their coupons for interest:

And whereas, It was provided in and by the said act of the tenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, that upon the assent of two-thirds, in value, of the said bondholders, and the acceptance of the said act, by the said stockholders, the estate, and property, real, and personal, and all the franchises, and corporate privileges, which, by the indenture of the twenty-eighth day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, recited in the said act, were granted to J. Rodman Paul, R. Rundle Smith, and Oscar Thompson, in trust, should re-vest in the said corporation, under, and subject, nevertheless, to the several trusts, set forth in the said indenture, except as modified, or controlled, by the provisions of the said act of assembly; which assent has been given, and the act accepted, whereby the said corporation is entitled to have the said property, mentioned in the said indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, assigned to them, as trustees, in lieu and stead of the said J. Rodman Paul, R. Rundle Smith, and Oscar Thompson, and as successors, in the said trust, and the rights, of the said creditors, bondholders, and all others, who have accepted the said act, or taken any interest under the same, or acted on the faith of the agreement therein mentioned, are preserved, and are to remain, and continue, as respects such non-concurring bondholders, as if nothing had been done under the said act of assembly:

And whereas, For the securing, to the said bondholders, and creditors, who have agreed, or may agree, to accept the bonds issued in lieu of surrendered coupons, who thereby become parties to the contract, authorized by said act, and to the bondholders, who have refused to accept the provisions of the said act, their said relative rights, and interests, in the property, which, by the terms, and conditions, of the said act of the tenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, are to become vested in the said corporation, upon the same trusts as are set forth, and declared, in respect thereof, in the said indenture of the twenty-eighth day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, recited in said act, it is necessary, that the trusts of the indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, should continue in the said corporation, as provided in the said act of assembly, as long as any bondholders shall continue to refuse to accept the said act of assembly, and the contract therein authorized:

And whereas, It is also necessary, to the execution of the said trusts, that the corporation, so created, and authorized, to act as trustees, under said indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in lieu and stead of the trustees therein named, should have, and possess, the power, out of, and with, the property, thus assigned to it in trust, and the receipts therefrom, and from the franchises, so assigned, to purchase, take, and hold, coal, tools, and other property, real, and personal, such as may be necessary for the carrying on, and conducting, the business of the said canal, and the exercise of the franchises of the corporation, as trustees, under the terms of the said indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in like manner as the said trustees might do, if the said assignment, or surrender, had never been made, but had continued in the trustees named in the said indenture; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That after the said franchises, and property, real, and personal, shall have been assigned, by the said trustees, to the said corporation, in trust, as contemplated by the said act of assembly, and from thence forward, and so long as any bondholders of the said corporation, secured by mortgages on the corporate property, and franchises, shall continue to refuse to concur in, and accept, the said act of assembly, the said corporation of the Union Canal Company shall be deemed, and taken, to have, hold, and possess, the said franchises, and property, and all receipts therefrom, and the rents, issues, income, or profits, thereof, and all other property, and effects, thereafter to be, by the said corporation, acquired, for the purpose of maintaining, and conducting, the work, and the business, of the canal, for, and upon, and under, and subject to, the same trusts, powers, provisos, provisions, and limitations, as are set forth and contained in the above recited indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and the said bondholders shall be entitled to have an account, from the said corporation, as trustees, under the said indenture, of the annual receipts, and expenditures, in the prosecution, and execution, of the said trust, and the net annual income derived from the said canal, and in the prosecution of the said trust, ascertained; which net income shall be divided, apportioned, and paid among, and to, the said bondholders, in the manner they are entitled, preserving the relative rights of the said several classes of bondholders, and parties interested in said trust, as provided in the said act of assembly, of the tenth of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two; and the sums, which shall be found due to the bondholders accepting the said act of assembly, and parties to the contract, thereby authorized, and therein contained, shall be paid to, and received by, them, respectively, in satisfaction of all coupons for interest, which shall have accrued, and become due, and payable, at the time of such account stated, as provided by the first section of the said act of assembly; and the sums, which shall be found due to the said bondholders, not concurring in, and accepting, the said act, and contract, shall be paid to, and received by, them, on account of the amount due to them, and with like effect as if the said act of assembly had not been passed, and so that the relative rights and interests of the said parties shall be preserved, and continue, as provided by the third section of the said act; and the said corporation, in the prosecution of the said trust, shall be authorized to make reasonable and proper compensation to its officers, and agents, who are employed in, and about, the necessary business of the said trust, and shall be allowed all reasonable expenses, but shall not be entitled to make any charge, by way of commissions, on the receipts, or disbursements; and in case any parties interested shall require the accounts of the said corporation to be filed, and audited, it shall be lawful to proceed, therefor, in the court of common pleas of the county of Philadelphia, in the same manner, and with like effect, and with the same right of appeal, as in case of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, under existing laws; and the said bondholders, who have refused to concur in the said act of assembly of the tenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall not, until they respectively do so concur, and accept the provisions of the same, in writing, delivered to the said corporation, be entitled to any of the privileges set forth in the said act, and any property, which was the property of the said corporation, and was conveyed, or held, under the trusts aforesaid; and all property which shall be acquired, and held, for or in execution of the said trusts, shall, during the continuance thereof, be freed, and discharged, from all liability to be taken in execution under proceedings by the said bondholders, or any creditor of the said corporation, otherwise than by proceedings to enforce the execution of the said trust, saving, and reserving, nevertheless, to the said bondholders, all rights heretofore secured to them, under the mortgages of the twenty-third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, made, by the said corporation, to M. Brooke Bulkley, James W. Paul, and Charles H. Rogers, and of the twentieth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, made, by the said corporation, to the said James W. Paul, and Charles H. Rogers, the survivors of the said mortgagees; which mortgages have been duly recorded; and also, under the trusts in the said indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, set forth and contained: Provided, That when all of the said bondholders, secured by the said mortgages, shall have accepted the said act of assembly of the tenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, in the manner therein, or hereby, authorized and directed, and all persons, whose claims are secured by the indenture of October twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, shall have become parties to the agreement, set forth in the said act of assembly, or have assented thereto, or have surrendered their claims, that the said corporation may, by deed, declare the same, and surrender the said trusts; whereupon, all of the said trusts shall cease, and the said property, and franchises, shall re-vest in the said corporation, as of their former estate, on the twenty-eighth day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and immediately preceding the execution of the indenture of that date.
